

Lyon is the Food Capital of the World. For starters, dine at a "Bouchon Lyonnais" a typical local restaurant, only in Lyon and serving traditional cuisine.

Land of 1000 Volcanoes

Auvergne- home of thousands of extinct volcanoes. A region rich in traditional farming and known for recipes such as stuffed cabbage, pork & beef and 'truffade' which is potato and fresh cheese dish. A fitting start for this tour.

Medieval Times

Sarlat le Caneda-wonderfully preserved medieval town. Get taken back to the middle ages and picture yourself as a citizen of this unique town. Cobblestone streets, shops, houses, turn off your phone and imagine yourself in the middle ages.

Built on Rock

Rocamadour: another unique gem from the middle ages. Built into the cliff, Rocamadour has been an important place of pilgrimage, attracting kings, nobles, bishops for centuries.

You won't be bored in Bordeaux everywhere in France is wine country; however, Bordeaux ranks very high on the list. There are many dishes unique to Bordeaux featuring fish, seafood, shellfish, as well as renowned beef in Bordeaux wine sauce and salt marsh raised lamb. Bon appetit.

Tours:

Located in the heart of the Loire valley, you'll visit marvels of art & architecture, the iconic Chateaux of the Loire valley. Tours also features excellent cuisine and wines from Vouvray, Montlouis, Chinon & Sancerre.

Paul Bocuse, culinary icon.

saving the best for last, your adventure finishes with a bucket list dining experience at Paul Bocuse, the world class chef's restaurant. By this time your palate is primed and ready for the grand finale. Spoiler alert: Visit the website and take a look at the menus....
